Highway Department Issues Warning.

Richmond.—

If your route is over soil roads, put on the chains before you start and drive very carefully.

This is the advice of the State Highway Department to all motorists in Virginia. Roads frozen by snow and sleet have thawed, rain has fallen to make bad highways worse and travelers are warned that they may encounter trouble anywhere on the system on any but hard-surfaced roads.

The bad weather has had its greatest effect on detours, which the department builds to meet temporary needs and which therefore are the first to cave in after a period of wet weather. H. G. Shirley, chairman of the highway commission, said that these detours are built with construction funds. The general impression, he said, is that detours are charged against the maintenance fund, but this is incorrect.

Masons Seek Education Department.

Prominent Virginia Masons, visiting the Virginia Congressmen in the interests of legislation creating a Federal department of education, were told by Representative Henry St. George Tucker, the Virginia member of the House Education Committee, that there is no possibility of such legislation being passed by the session of Congress, if at all during President Coolidge's administration.

The Masons were Robert S. Crump, of Richmond, and Robert S. Barrett, of Alexandria, and they conferred with Representatives Hooker, Peery, Drewry, Deal and Woodrum for nearly two hours before calling on Congressman Tucker.

The Sterling-Reed bill, containing the measures to create a Cabinet officer to head a department of education, has been before the education committee, of which Tucker is a member, but he informed the visitors that there is no chance of the bill being passed or even debated by the House before the adjournment of Congress on March 4.

Her Hat Not in Ring.

Mrs. R. B. Mumford, prominent Richmond leader and club woman, refused either to deny or confirm the rumor that she will enter the next gubernatorial contest. Mrs. Mumford declared that she thought it very foolish to even consider such rumors seriously, or to fill the newspapers with their discussion.

"I think it is absurd to discuss such a thing," she said. "I do not even think it is worthy of denial or confirmation. Mrs. Mumford has recently resigned the presidency of the Co-Operative Educational Association, which she held for about fourteen years.

Commission Orders Refund.

Four years of litigation was brought to an end when the State Corporation Commission entered a final order in the rate case of the Roanoke Water Works Company after a compromise agreement had been reached by counsel for the company and the city of Roanoke.

Under the terms of the agreement, the "fixed rate" inaugurated by the company in 1923, after an appeal had been taken from the commission's decision, is made permanent. The company, however, must refund to its consumers between $14,000 and $15,000 collected under its own rate in 1923.

Crush Visits Post.

W. B. Crush, adjutant of the Virginia department of the American Legion; A. J. Nicholas, Jr., who will succeed Mr. Crush as adjutant this week, and R. E. P. Ham, editor of the Virginia Legionnaire, news publication of the legion, visited Church Hill Post of the American Legion, Arthur L. Brown, post commander announced. Arthur Bell spoke on the proposed organization of a legion band.

Guardsmen Promoted.

Three officers of Battery D, 111th Field Artillery, Virginia National Guard, Hampton, have been promoted. First Lieutenant H. F. Mallow was named captain; Second Lieutenant H. H. Kimberley, jr., first lieutenant, and Sergeant W. R. Johnson, second lieutenant.

New Road Open.

Three miles of concrete road, south of New Church, have just been thrown open to the public, making the Eastern Shore Highway three miles longer than heretofore. The highway is now open from Cape Charles to Eastville.

Explains Guard Ruling.

Under provision of the nation l defense act members of the officers' reserve corps who are recognized National Guard officers must hold the same grade and section in the O. R. C as in the guard, a communication to Adjutant-General W. W. Sale showed. The only exception to this rule is in the case of members of the O. R. C. who, on December 12, 1921, held Federal recognition in the guard in a lower grade than in the reserve corps.

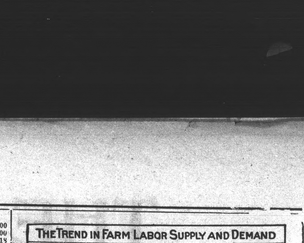
Sunflowers Kill Fever

Sunflow are grown extensively in some countries on lowlands which are subject to considerable degree of marsh fever. Where the sunflower is thus cultivated marsh fever is said to be practically unknown.



Farmers are cutting down hired help. The demand is estimated at only 89 per cent of normal as compared with 95 per cent a year ago, according to a statement issued by the Washington office of the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation based on data from government sources. The low purchasing power of farm products has forced the farmer to rearrange his operations. He is coming to depend largely on his own and his family's labor. In many cases the hired man is being dispensed with entirely.

Farm help costs more today than at any other time in the past sixty-one years. Wages demanded are higher than a year ago and rates for 1923 averaged above all preceding years. The peak year in the series was in 1920. That year labor was scarce. According to the accompanying chart, in June of 1920 the supply was but 73 per cent of normal, while the demand was 106 per cent of normal. During the latter half of 1920 and through the first six months of 1921, the labor supply curve took a sudden upward swing, and in June of 1921 it was 95 per cent of normal, while demand had dropped to 97 per cent. Until in June of 1922 the supply curve continued to rise, reaching its height at 105 per cent of normal, while the demand was but 95 per cent normal.

With the beginning of 1923 city labor wages improved. Large industrial centers drew farm help cityward. Farmers had to pay wages out of proportion to what the farm could earn to hold their men. In June of 1923 the demand was 95 per cent of normal, while the supply curve was sagging to 84 per cent. The latter half of the year demand increased, due to excessive labor costs and the increasing supply. This year demand has made still further decline, until now it is but 89 per cent of normal, while labor supply, which is gradually increasing, is estimated around 89 per cent.

KILLED

Life of Samuel W. Farrar Snapped Out By N. & W Freight Train In Horrible Manner.

Tuesday morning on the yard of the N. & W. Railway Company at Farmville, the remains of Samuel W. Farrar were strewn along the track by a westbound freight train. Mr. Farrar had been section foreman for 35 years for the Company. He went down from his home at Tuggles Tuesday morning on the passenger train to Farmville, which was engaged in work just west of Farmville, and in an unguarded moment stepped in front of a westbound freight train, which divided his body and strew his lifeless remains along the track for some distance

The accident, it seems, could hardly have been avoided, as Mr. Farrar probably thought he was getting out the way of one train and stepped in front of another.

There was no chance for the man, and under the rules of the law as it is written he is probably guilty of indiscretion and negligence, although his long service in his hazardous position failed to serve him in this moment of peril. The Company, however painful it may be, is a party to the sad accident.

The deceased suffered a painful operation last summer in the hospital, and although 65 years of age, was enjoying good health at the time of death He was popular among those who knew him and was a faithful employee of his Company. He is survived by a sister, Mrs. Lindsay Cralle and a brother, W. C. Farrar, of Evergreen.

He was a member of the Presbyterian church, and his pastor, Rev. Rankin, of Farmville, conducted his funeral. He was a member of a large and influential family, born and reared in this county. His remains were interred here yesterday at Liberty cemetery.

Mrs. Mary E. Davis

Mrs. Mary E. Davis, wife of J. D. Davis, now of Culpeper, formerly of Appomattox died at the age of 73 years following an operation Monday at University Hospital, Charlottesville. She is survived by her husband, two daughters, Misses Margaret and Kyle Davis, and two sons, J. K. and E. J. Davis, all of Culpeper, except the son last mentioned, whose home is in High Point, N. C. Her remains were brought home to Mathews church cemetery and the interment was made Tuesday in the presence of a large crowd of friends of the family.

PAMPLIN

The Parent Teacher's Association met at Masonic Hall Tuesday night, with an unusually large crowd present. An interesting program was rendered and a committee appointed to change the doors of the school building so in case of a fire they will open on the outside.

It was with profound sorrow that we learned of the death of Mrs. Willie B. Harvey. She was a fine christian character and a loving devoted wife and mother. She leaves two sisters of this place, Mesdames, Ed Harvey and Lillie Moses.

The W. C. T. U. met at the home of Mrs. Patteson Wednesday evening with a large attendance and a most interesting program was rendered 14 bags containing testament, and other literature and articles were made for Soldier's and Sailor's Dept.

Your correspondent reported some months ago that Dr. Lukin's father was dead. It gives me great pleasure to correct this statement as I was misinformed, and learn that his father is enjoying good health.

Messrs. W. H. Ligon and J. H. Brightwell are still in very critical condition.

Sales of tobacco continue to increase and prices are satisfactory.

The dogs in this part of the town are very destructive. They are constantly clawing thru the screens on back porches and devouring milk, butter and meat. Many of the dogs are without tags an.l we would be glad if these were looked after.

Many inhabitants of our town watched with interest the eclipse of the sun Saturday morning.

We are sorry to report the following on the sick list: Mesdames. Curtis Harvey, H. M. Wilson, Wiley Richardson, Taylor Inge, J. W. Gilliam,

Rev. H. M. Wilson preached a most excellent sermon at Presbyterian church Sunday morning on Foreign Missions.

We regret to note the extreme illness of Messrs. Top Singleton, A. Gropp, an.l Robt Wayne. It was necesary for them all to have trained nurse,

Miss Ella Neal Booker has returned from a two week's visit to relatives in Lynchburg.

P. nick Harvey, with a number of others took the examination for mail route out to Hixburg. We trust our ex soldier will win

W. and Phinlees Harvey, and endorsed by S. D. Harvey, and to subject to the payments of said debt, by attachment, the following real estate:

1st—A certain tract of land, containing 39 acres, more or less, with improvements thereon, situated about eight miles south of the Court House of Appomattox County, and adjoining the lands of Lewis Jennings, M. P. Lee and Others.

2nd—A certain tract of 34 acres, more or less, situated in said County of Appomattox, in Southside District, about 10 miles southeast of Appomattox Court House, and adjoining the lands of W. W. Lee, Lewis Jennings and Others, and

3rd—A certain tract of land, lying in Appomattox County, about 4½ miles from Red House, adjoining lands of S. D. Harvey, the Old S. W. Harvey Place, Russell Rowles and Others, containing 29 acres, with improvements thereon, and belonging to Geo. W. Harvey; and

Also any personal property of said Defendants, located on said lands, and in the County of Appomattox, which personal property is in the possession and under the control of Nannie D. Harvey, the wife of S. D. Harvey and Phinlees Harvey, the wife of Geo. W. Harvey, in said county.

And an affidavit having been made and filed that the defendants, S. D. Harvey and Geo. W. Harvey, are fugitives from justice, and not residents of the State of Virginia, it is ordered that they do appear within ten days after due publication hereof, and do what may be necessary to protect their interest in this suit. And it is further ordered that a copy hereof be published once a week for four successive weeks in the Times-Virginian, a newspaper published in the County of Appomattox, and that a copy be posted at the front door of the Court House of this County on or before the 5th day of January, 1925, that being the next succeeding Rule day after this order was entered.

A copy—Teste:

In One Round!

"I ain't one that bites from trouble," said Brer Williams; "kaze when his mind is made up to git you, git you he will—today, or termorrer. But when I knows he's at the outside gate, I hollers, 'Come on in,' an' when he comes, it's me an' him, an' I knocks de stuffins out o' him!"—Atlanta Constitution.

Ford

CLOSED CARS

The biggest value in a winter car for the family

The Fordor Sedan provides room for the whole family. Yet it is a light, easily handled car—the kind you want for the months of changeable weather and difficult driving conditions.

It is fitted with carpet and curtains that harmonize with the color tones of the two wide, deeply upholstered seats. It enables you to keep comfortably warm, yet have plenty of fresh air since the Ford or Sedan is equipped with Cowl Ventilator and windows that lower by revolving regulators.
